

MUSIC UNDER NEW YORK

2007 Audition Application Instructions

Music Under New York (MUNY) is one of many visual and performing arts programs administered by Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) Arts for Transit. Once a year sometime in May, MUNY holds auditions to add new performers to its roster. Applications will be reviewed and approximately 70 eligible performers will be selected and contacted to participate in live auditions, held only one-day.

During the auditions, a panel of musicians, music industry professionals, MTA representatives, community arts organizations members and others will judge each five minute performance on the following criteria: quality, variety, and appropriateness for the mass transit environment.

MUNY performers are not paid (except for special events), but are allowed to accept donations from the public. As a MUNY member, performers call in or “book” their own performances every two weeks.
